Farming Valley school was the scene of a community gathering on Halloween when the pupils presented a two act comedy "The Headless Horseman". Stanley Vanstone as Ichabod Crane, the nervous schoolmaster, gave a remarkable impersonation of the character, and brought gales of laughter from the audience. Miss Ethel Cole as Brown Bones is also worthy of commendation. The school of Dutch children in costume showed that they had been well trained in their singing and acting. The Virginia Reel was pleasingly done. Miss Eva Caskey acted as organist.

Following games and lunch a committee was appointed namely Mr. Joe Vanstone, Mr. Merle Rogers and Mrs. C. A. Bishop to act in conjunction with the school literary society, to plan further social evenings for the winter months. The next event will be a dance in the school on November 23; music by the Excel Orchestra.

Hon. Charles Stewart and W. R. Howson Speak at Cereal

Public meetings were held in Cereal yesterday under Liberal auspices. At the afternoon session, which was a general business meeting, it was decided to hold a nominating convention in Cereal on Saturday, December 8, commencing at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

In the evening W. R. Howson, M.L.A., and Hon. Charles Stewart, addressed a packed house. Both speakers were well received and given an attentive hearing. Lorne Proudfoot, M.L.A., engaged in a few passages with Mr. Howson, while the latter was reviewing the bills dealt with by the legislature.

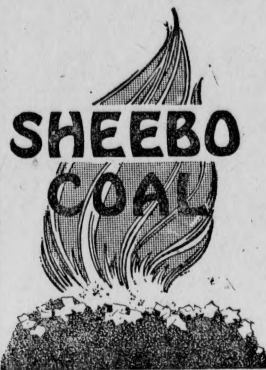

W. M. Denton, president of the Acadia Provincial Liberal Association, presided.

the home of Mrs. A.J. Banks. The meeting was well attended and was opened with missionary hymns and scripture readings followed by roll call which was answered by a suitable verse. Discussion centered around plans for a community Christmas Tree. Readings on the work of missions were given by several of the members. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. F. E. Bishop on November 29, with Mrs. R. E. Bishop and Mrs. E. H. Church as the programme committee.

Miss Thema and Miss Doris Gullekson were week end guests of Miss Marion Bishop.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Waldo and Mrs. Orval Waldo of Condor, motored to Excel district to visit friends. Mrs. Orval Waldo is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Barker of Sedalia. Basil Thayer, who accompanied the party to Excel, after staying in the Condor district since May, will remain at home for the winter.

Pioneer Hardwareman of

Alsask Passes After Long and Trying Illness

J. L. Acheson, pioneer hardwareman and owner of a hardware business in Oyen, died at his residence in Alsask, on Tuesday, November 6, 1934. The funeral took place in Alsask on Friday, November 9.

A large crowd attended the Social Credit meeting held in Excel school, Saturday, November 3. The speakers were Mr. Unwin and Mrs. Rogers.

A meeting at which great enthusiasm was shown was held by Bown Junior U.F.A. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Cole, on Saturday, November 10. Almost all members and a large number of visitors were present.

Roll call was answered by a "Current Event" and followed by routine business.

Mr. "Jock" McKay and Miss Ethel Cole took the affirmative, and Mr. Ernest Forester and Mr. Duane Bishop, the negative side in a debate "Resolved: That the Douglas System will not be of more benefit to the people than the C.C.F. proposals". The judge, Miss Daisy Willcock, Miss Delpha Willcock and Mr. Albert Bown, gave a decision in favor of the negative side by a small margin. Another debate on the subject will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bishop on Saturday, November 25, starting at 8 o'clock. The
